NOTES OF THE SOCIETY

ATTENTION! Members and Friends of the Society - Ten years ago, in September, 1936, The Detroit Society for Genealogical Research was organized. Plans are now being made to celebrate this tenth anniversary at a meeting in October. Please keep this in mind and plan to attend. Further notice of time and place will appear later.

The speaker at the meeting of the Society on April 13 was Mrs. Elleine Harrison Stones, chief of staff of the Burton Historical Collection of the Detroit Public Library, whose subject was "The Preservation and Administration of National and Local Archives". Mrs. Stones, who was one of a few privileged to attend a class on the subject in Washington, D. C., last summer, gave a very interesting and instructive talk on what has been done and is being done, both in foreign countries and in the United States, to preserve our public records.

We were all very glad that our president, Mr. Elijah Hunter Owen, who has been ill so long, was able to be with us at the April meeting.

The society lost another member in the death of Mrs. Harry H. Wait (Isabelle Child) on April 9, 1946. She was also a member of John Sackett Chapter, D. A. R. Burial was in Redford Cemetery. (See - An Ashworth Family Record - March-April, 1945.)

Mary Helen Martin, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reynolds Martin, was married in the Mt. Franklin Baptist Church of El Paso, Texas, on April 4, 1946, to William Roy Williamson, Jr. of El Paso. The bride is a native of Detroit and was a student at Wayne University. From May 1942 until November 1944 she was employed in the Motor Transport Office at Fort Benning, Georgia. The groom is the son of Mr. William Roy Williamson, Sr. of El Paso. He attended Texas College of Mines before entering the Army. He went overseas as a 1st Lieutenant in the 7th Armoured Division and was mustered out of service as a Captain in February, 1946.

Mr. Roy E. McFee has an interesting and amusing article in the "House Beautiful" magazine for May 1946, entitled "No Place for a Red-blooded Man". Read it - p. 144.

Mr. Harold E. Meyer of Los Angeles, California, who was the second president of the society, was a most welcome guest at the May meeting; the first time in nine years.

Two of our members from Royal Oak have recently been honored: Mr. William Clarence Hudson has been installed as state registrar of the Sons of the American Revolution; and Mr. George Frederick Blount was elected vice-president of the Royal Oak Historical Society.

Dr. Sanford A. Moss of Lynn, Massachusetts, has received another honor as inventor of the turbo-supercharger which made high altitude flying possible for heavy bombers. Franklin Institute awarded him the Howard N. Potts gold medal in Philadelphia.

The annual election of officers of the society was held at the meeting on May 11. Mr. William Clarence Hudson, who has been acting president for the past year in the absence of Mr. Owen, was elected President; Mr. Marquis E. Shattuck becomes Vice-president; Mrs. Asa Stutsman, Recording Secretary; Mrs. R. P. Paterson, re-elected Corresponding Secretary; Mr. Clarence Reynolds Martin, Treasurer; Miss Maude C. Hathaway and Mrs. Clarence L. Beavis, re-elected Editor and Assistant Editor.

For the program at the above meeting each member brought an heirloom or picture of some ancestral home and gave an account of the person to whom the article belonged. Many interesting stories were told about the exhibits and their owners.

On May 17, 1946, at the Brewster Pilgrim Congregational Church in Detroit, Elizabeth Bowditch Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Hunter Owen, was married to Lawrence Sylvester Smith of Windsor, Ontario, Canada, son of Mrs. George Smith of Sussex, England. The Rev. Charles Gondey read the ceremony. (For the ancestry of the bride see "The Descendants of John Owen of Windsor, Connecticut," edited by Ralph Dornfield Owen, 1944; Elijah Hunter Owen, genealogist of the Owen Family Association.)

FREDERICK (2) DUPS, son of Hans Jacob, was perhaps born after his father's death. In an old Dubbs Bible in Weston, Ohio, his birth date is given as 1757. Family tradition says he lived almost a hundred years. But investigation seems to prove that when he died July 2, 1850, he was not more than ninety years old. He was certainly younger than Leonard. No guardian was appointed for him in 1762 and his mother evidently acted in that capacity. In his youth he was bound out to learn the trade of a tanner. His name appears on Lancaster (now Lebanon) County, Pennsylvania records but once, and that on a militia census of 1782, when he is listed as first class on the same roll on which his brother Henry is listed as fifth class. It is believed that he came of age in that year, and that shortly thereafter the two brothers went west. Undoubtedly attracted by the building of the turnpike, Frederick Dubbs settled in Dublin Township, Bedford (now Fulton) County, Pennsylvania, near Burnt Cabins, where the Three Mountain Road came over the Tuscarora Ridge. He obtained a warrant for 200 acres of land here at the foot of Sidney's Knob in 1788. The road brought the young tanner much business and he prospered. In 1799 he bought more land along the turnpike and became a tavernkeeper.

In 1792, Frederick Dubbs - he used the Americanized spelling of his name from the time he left Lancaster County - married Catherine Snyder. She was the daughter of Conrad and Nancy Snyder, neighbors of Swiss descent. Catherine was only fourteen years of age when she married. She outlived her husband, dying Dec. 23, 1852.

Frederick Dubbs died possessed of several farms, hundreds of acres of timber land, the tannery, the tavern, a grist mill and a saw mill in Burnt Cabuns. For all these things he made disposition in his will. The tannery later closed and all the buildings pertaining to it have vanished along with the spring devoted to its use. The three houses built by Frederick Dubbs still remain standing (1945). The mansion house, built before 1810, is still as straight and true as when it was built, although the addition built after the original owner's death has fallen to ruins. One notable feature of the house is the huge chimney at one end that served four fireplaces on two floors. There was also a hinged partition between the public room and the dining room that swung up and was hooked to the ceiling when it was desirable to throw the two rooms together.

Frederick Dubbs took part in the life of his community. He was supervisor of the township in 1809, road supervisor in 1811 and constable in 1820. Burnt Cabins was little more than a string of taverns along the highway and there were no churches until after 1850. The population was mainly Scotch-Irish and the Dubbs sons married into these Scotch-Irish families.

The children of Frederick and Catherine Dubbs were:

1. JOHN, b. July 24, 1793.
2. A twin died in infancy.
3. HENRY, b. Sept. 26, 1795; d. Mar. 17, 1851.
4. Julianna, died in infancy.

7. Sarah, b. Oct. 27, 1800; d. 1325; m. David Long.

JOHN JACOB (3) DUBBS (Jacob 2, Hans Jacob 1), born July 28, 1774; died November 5, 1852; married Mary Magdalena Hill, November 23, 1795 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He lived in or near Harrisburg, and numerous deeds that concern land and lots that he bought and sold, designate him as a farmer and a tavern-keeper. His wife died before 1824, as in that year he went with his son Jacob to Venango County, Pennsylvania, where he lived until his death.

The children of John Jacob and Mary Magdalena Dubbs were:

1. Jacob, b. Dec. 10, 1796; d. 1845.

JOHN (3) DUBBS (Frederick 2, Hans Jacob 1), b. July 24, 1793 at Burnt Cabins, Pennsylvania; died about 1870 at Findlay, Ohio. He is believed to have married twice, although no proof of the first marriage has been found. He went to Ohio in 1824 and was the first settler in Jackson Township, Wood County, occupying at first shanties built earlier by the Ottawa Indians. The land, part of the Maumee Valley, was swampy and heavily forested. John Dubbs figured in several of the stories of the early days of that section. He was often a township officer. About 1858 he married a young woman whose name is reported variously as Ellen Schultz or Celia Swartz. In his old age he lost the land he had so painfully drained, and moved to Findlay, Ohio.

The children of John and ---- Dubbs were:

1. John, b. Feb. 18, 1859; d. Sept. 27, 1930.
2. Ann, m. --- Evans.
3. Myrtle.

When land was opened for settlement in Wood Count the family moved there, locating on Section 19 of Liberty Township in 1831. He was a tanner and followed this trade all his life. He was often a township officer and was active in all the affairs of his community. The wife Eleanor died July 5, 1838.

1. Lewis Fitzsimmons, b. Mar. 8, 1821; d. Sept. 14, 1882; m. Sarah Barton.

He married Isabella Jamison, born July 22, 1798 at Burnt Cabins, died August 4, 1876 in Linn County, Iowa. She was the daughter of James and Sarah Jamison, who kept a neighboring tavern on the turnpike. This was the first of three marriages of the Dubbs sons with Jamison daughters or grand-daughters. Frederick Dubbs owned and operated a grist mill and a saw mill in Burnt Cabins. He was county commissioner in 1850 when Fulton County, Pennsylvania, was established and his name is on the courthouse in McConnellsburg. After his death the family moved to Linn County, Iowa.

The child of Isaac and Alice Dubbs was:

1. Rebecca, m. --- Neff.

MOSES (3) DUBBS (Frederick 2, Hans Jacob 1), born December 13, 1804 at Burnt Cabins, Pennsylvania, married Liza Regan. In 1833 he owned the first store in what is now Pleasantville, Bedford County, Pennsylvania. He migrated to Knox County Illinois, sometime after 1844. AN OLD RAMSAY LETTER

Contributed by Dorris M. Berning of Detroit.

Note:- This letter was written by Thomas Ramsay, Brewerton, New York, to his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Andrus Ramsay, who moved to Wisconsin in 1852. Jane, Alonzo and George are the writer's children. Dwight is his son-in-law, Jane's husband; Mary Fay, a sister of Mrs. Wm. A. Ramsay (above). Steam boats, mentioned, were on what later became the Oswego section of the Barge Canal - the Oswego and Oneida rivers, emptying into Oneida Lake. Thomas Ramsay built and operated the first steam boat, The Lady of Oneida Lake. He and John Kathan built many others. Kathan's great grandson, A. D. Kathan, is a dentist in Detroit. I am Thomas Ramsay's great grand-daughter. DMB

Clay (Cicero Twp., N. Y.)
Sunday, May 24th, 1857

Dear Children:

Yours of the 3d inst has been received. I am sorry to hear that you have had such hard times but you will recollect I told you so before you went. I knew you kneeded more money to begin with. We are all well at present. Dwight and Jane have just gone from here. Alonzo has gone home with them. They came yesterday and brought your mother home. She has been out there two weeks. Dwight is keeping a little grocery at Bangall. His health is better than it has been. It has been a verry cold and wet spring. You ask how far it is from the house to the river. It is about fifty rods. The water has been verry high this spring, it came almost up to the barn. I should think it was about two miles to Young's sawmill. William Plaisted, Abram Youngs & Mr. Shell have all died this spring.

Jesse is working the farm. It was a bad cold that I wrote you I was sick with. I have had two severe turns of colic since I have been here. I have just got over the last one. Mary Fay is here yet. I think I shall trade your land off for a farm here if I can find a good chance. It will be too late to sow seeds when you get this & by another spring you will be here. We have done verry little farming yet. We have sowed a small piece of spring wheat & a piece of oats. We shall commence plowing corn tomorrow. Our stock consists of a yoke of oxen, one three year old colt, one old cow, two two year old heifers, three yearling calves, two pigs, three turkies, thirty hens, one dog & two cats. We have sett fifty seven turkey eggs.

You speak about our having fruit. We have none on the place altho there is plenty close by. Andrews had been on the place about three years. He sett out some trees but they are not old enough to bear. When he got it it had been nearly cut off for cord wood. Some of it next the river is quite smooth handsome meadow & all of it is in good condition considering the time it has been cleared. There is about two acres of winter wheat on the place that looks verry good & a piece of winter wry.

Tuesday, May 26th 57

It has been verry pleasant for a few days. The grass grows very fast. We are plowing for corn. The steam boats pass by where we are at work every few hours. I wish you were here to see how pleasant it is but I suppose it is all for the best. We shall all meet in another world dont in this. Your mother is sick with the headache. George and Mary are moving the stove. I must finish my letter & go & help.

Yours
Thomas Ramsay

GIFTS TO THE SOCIETY

"Genealogical Record of the Royer Family in America" by Rev. J. G. Francis, 1928. The gift of Mrs. Frank A. DeBoos of Dearborn, Michigan.

"Johnny Appleseed - The Story of the Pioneer, John Chapman" - A Centennial Tribute, 1945. The gift of Francis Waring Robinson of Detroit.

Mr. Floyd A. Church, still with the War Department, Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, Washington, D. C., writes an interesting note of a recent visit to the Hodgson Hall Branch, Savannah (Ga.) Public Library, with some snapshots from an old Savannah cemetery. Also some negatives of photos he has taken in Oak Hill Cemetery on R street in Georgetown. Always to be relied on for an interest in genealogy.

1024: B-4: COMPTON:- John Compton, born in New Jersey, date and place unknown, married Helena Shearer(of Dutch descent, if not pure Dutch from Holland) and either moved to Vermont or m. there. Helena Shearer attained the age of 111 years and died in Pennsylvania just across the state line from New Jersey.

Their children were:

1. Priscilla, married Luther Burt.
2. Hugh, " Patty Burt.
3. Hannah, " Thomas Dennis.

10. Abraham, died unmarried.

The James Compton, born 1771, m. Clarissa Cleveland at Brattleboro, Vt., fourth child and dau. of Josiah and Ruth (Johnson) Cleveland, on Sunday, 2-17-1793.

Their children were:

James Compton was a lumberman on the Delaware River; moved to Delhi, Delaware Co., N. Y. In 1815 he moved from Delhi to Ulysses, Tompkins Co., N. Y. By 1836 many of his children had settled in Washington Twp., Erie Co., Pa., where James moved in his old age. Clarissa Cleveland Compton was born in East Haddam, Conn., 9-26-1771. She was a schoolmate of Noah Webster. She died 1-27-1845 near Blooming Valley in Crawford Co., Pennsylvania.

We are anxious to ascertain the parents of John Compton, and from what county in New Jersey he originated. What possessed John Compton to be in Vermont at that date? He was not on the list of original grantees at Brattleboro in 1751. Could he be the John Compton, Somerset Co., N. J., who had his property confiscated in 1779 for Tory leanings, and migrated to Canada and returned to the U. S. by way of Vermont?

Any leads, suggestions, or information on this John Compton and his descendants will be appreciated.
